Section A

Reading – 20 marks

Q.1 Read the given passage carefully: (5 marks)

My next pet was a pigeon, the most revolting bird to look at, with his feathers pushing through the wrinkled scarlet skin, mixed with the horrible yellow down that covers baby pigeons and makes them look as though they have been peroxidizing their hair. Because of his repulsive and obese appearance, we called him Quasimodo.

Since he had an unorthodox upbringing, without parents to teach him, Quasimodo became convinced that he was not a bird at all, and refused to fly. He walked everywhere. He was always eager to join us in anything we did. He would even try to come for walks with us. So you had to either carry him on your shoulder, which was risking an accident to your clothes, or else you let him walk behind. If you let him walk, then you had to slow down your own pace to suit his, for should you get too far ahead you would hear the most frantic and imploring coos and turn around to find Quasimodo running desperately after you.

Q1. Read the questions given below and write the option you consider the most appropriate in your answer sheet.

1. The narrator describes the pigeon as a 'revolting bird' because

- a) he could not fly
- b) he had to be carried everywhere
- c) he had wrinkled skin covered with yellow feathers
- d) he was fat

2. Quasimodo got his name because

- a) he was a fat and ugly
- b) he was attractive
- c) he could not fly
- d) he love behaving like human beings

3. We know that Quasimodo was always eager to go on walks because

- a) he walked everywhere
- b) he did not know how to fly
- c) he complained loudly if he was not taken along
- d) he always copied whatever humans did

4. Quasimodo protested when he was

- a) left at home
- b) lifted on human shoulders
- c) taken for a walk
- d) left behind during walks

5. The phrase 'risking an accident to your clothes' means

- a) the bird pecked at their clothes
- b) there was a chance of the bird soiling their clothes
- c) the bird risked a fall
- d) the bird did not like their clothes

Q.2 Read the poem given below carefully (5 marks)

LAW OF THE JUNGLE

I have heard
There is a law of the jungle
I have heard when the lion has eaten his fill
He never attacks
He goes to lie under dense shady trees
And when the rough gusts
Shake branches of trees
The mynah leaving her own young
Covers the frail crow's eggs
With her protective wings.
I have heard
When any bird-young falls out of the nest
The entire jungle wakes to rescue.
I have heard
When the weaver bird's nest
Reflects on the lake
The silvery fishes adopt it as neighbour.
And if a rough storm breaks the foot-bridge.
Then on a wooden plank
Squirrel, snake, goat and cheetah walk in a file.
I have heard
There is a law of the jungle
O God. All Powerful. All Seeing. All Wise.
In this my city
Proclaim a law,
Even the law of the jungle
Translated from the Urdu by Syeda Hameed

Q3. Read the passage given below carefully (5 marks)

1. The Galapagos Islands in the Pacific Ocean are a rocky, lonely spot, but they are also one of the most unusual places in the world. The reason is that they are the home of some of the last giant tortoises left on earth.
2. Weighing hundreds of pounds, these tortoises wander slowly around the rocks and sand of the islands. Each of these islands has its own particular kinds of tortoise. There are seven different kinds of tortoises on the eight islands.
3. Hundreds of years ago, thousands of tortoises wandered around these islands. All that changed when people started landing there. When people first arrived, their ships had no refrigerators. This meant that fresh food was always a problem for the sailors on board. The giant tortoises provided a solution to this problem.
4. Ships would anchor off the islands, and crew would seize as many tortoises as they could. Once the animals were aboard the ship, the crew would roll the tortoises onto their backs and use them for soups and stews.

Read the questions given below and write the option you consider the most appropriate in your answer sheet

ANS-14.

CHARACTER OF JULIETTE

Juliette, the owner of the villa in "villa for sale" is a clever, persuasive and highly presentable. She knows how to sell her property. She thinks the house is small but it has a charm of its own. Probably, she has overassessed the work of her villa, hence she is finding no buyers for it. When Gaston and Jeanne come to buy a villa, she uses all her business tactics to sell it off starting right from flattering the buyers to give a rosy picture of her property, to overquoting the price – she does it all with a straight face and doesn't let it become the real index of her round. However, despite all her cleverness, she is "outwitted" by Gaston who pays the price quoted by her for the house and yet makes a profit of one hundred thousand francs on the same property without her getting a whiff of it. Still, Juliette is able to get the price quoted by her for the villa.

OTBA (10marks)

Ans 1: Development has multiple components: proper food, clothing and shelter for the people; adequate education and culture; good health, good environment, equal opportunity for all ability and to defend from enemies, economic stability and growth and above all, good governance, all leading to a feeling of justifiable national pride.

Ans 2: It aims to clean all places of human habitation in India of filth. In his words, 'we have to give Mahatma Gandhi something on his 150th birth anniversary in 2019, just like the whole nation united to fight for freedom back then. We have to work together to clean India now.'
